

From beginning to end, Friant provided excellent support for this large installation of System 2 workstations. Our Friant Sales Consultant was quick to respond to all our requests and even value engineered our original specification, helping us provide excellent value to the client. Lead time was exactly what was quoted and there were no damages. Our client is very pleased with the results of this Friant installation.

case study

Crest Office Furniture

company

The primary function of Crest Office Furniture Co. Inc. – privately owned and operated since 1957 – is to provide experience, knowledge, and support of the office furniture industry to design professionals and the business community.

products

53 System 2 workstations

project

New installation

furnishing excellence™