

V&A was looking for a well designed furniture solution that complimented their new space, while staying within their conservative budget. The Friant product was a perfect fit given its competitive price point and short lead time. We were able to combine the Friant workstations with HPL Contract's laminate conference tables and reception station to create a beautiful space that the client is very happy with.”

case study

V&A Consulting Engineers

company

V&A is a leading independent consulting engineering firm specializing in corrosion engineering, coatings system management, and condition assessment services.

products

36 Workstations, 2 Private Offices and Shared Filing, 36 Task Chairs and 30 Conference Chairs.

project

Due to high growth, V&A moved its headquarters within Oakland, CA to a larger facility.

furnishing excellence™

Young Office Solutions
San Francisco, CA
(415) 399.5300